How to get here

By Car:

Scarlinto is located on Italian West Coast, around 90 km south of Livorno.

If you arrive from France, you will drive along Autostrada A10, then A12 till to Cecina.

If you arrive from Switzerland/Austria, you will drive along Autostrada A1, then A11, then A12 till to Cecina.

In any case, you will take the SS1 Aurelia at Cecina, then take the Follonica Nord exit and follow the signs for Follonica and Castiglione della Pescaia. Once you have crossed Follonica, drive 4km until you reach Puntone di Scarlinto. At the traffic light, turn right and after 500 meters, you will reach the entrance to the Marina.

If you are arriving from the South on the SS1 Aurelia, take the Scarlinto exit and follow the directions for Castiglione della Pescaia until you reach Puntone di Scarlinto.

This is Maremma Toscana

MAREMMA TOSCANA PROMOTION VIDEO

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tTkx4OtHZcU>

Picturesque pine forests and shady olive groves, verdant green hills which seem to stretch on forever, the crystal clear water of the Tyrrhenian Sea: it is easy to understand how one could fall in love with Maremma. On the other hand, it seems hard to understand why this paradise on earth is still only known to a select few.

Perhaps it is because Maremma has lived in isolation for centuries, maintaining its rugged allure to this day, thanks to the pristine coastline and wild national parks stretching for miles.

The full magic of Maremma unfolds only to those who take the time to discover it and open their hearts to the charm of this wonderful region. Those who do are richly rewarded because Maremma casts a spell on its guests. Fabulous sunsets over the gently undulating hills, countless well-preserved medieval hamlets where you can retrace and breathe in history. And of course the sea; 250 kilometers of the most beautiful sandy beaches line the Maremma coast.

LAY-DAY ACTIVITIES: 28 Settembre 2017 Diaccia Botrona and Le Mortelle estate

Departure 9:00 am return 6:00 pm

Diaccia Botrona is a natural reserve in Tuscany characterized by a typical marshy environments occupying part of the plain between the city of Grosseto and the coastal resort of Castiglione della Pescaia. The natural reserve is possible to visit by a little boat.

The Le Mortelle estate is located near the town of Castiglione della Pescaia. The estate has belonged to the Antinori family since 1999, and it has worked both on the vineyards and the new cellars with the firm conviction that the area, at the time just emerging into prominence in the overall panorama of Italian wine, had a very significant potential for the production of high quality wine.
